DEVAUCHELLE'S STORY OF POLICE COERCION

Accused of Working Against Brown and Being an Advertiser Spy, He Is Threatened with Loss of Employment.

The police policy of intimidation and revenge continues and a remarkable instance in this connection came to light yesterday.

Eugene Devauchelle, formerly of the mounted patrol and latterly residing on Molokai, was the victim and his story, which throws valuable light upon the coercive methods of the present police administration, makes mighty interesting reading.

Devauchelle went to the police court yesterday morning to listen to a case which was being tried, and on coming down the stairs was hailed by Sheriff Brown who asked him to step into his office.

The ex-officer did as requested and the following conversation took place:

"I thought you were a friend of mine," said Brown.

"I am," replied Devauchelle.

"You're not, judging by the way you've been treating me. I understand you're acting as a spy for the Advertiser and are working under High Sheriff Henry."

"That's untrue."

"I heard it on good authority."

"I'd like to be brought face to face with the person who told you."

"Some time ago you were present when Isaac Cockett and Alec Nicholls were talking about running a crap game over Cockett's saloon at Kalihi. No one else was present and the Advertiser had all about the game the next morning. No one but you could have given them the tip."

"You're making a great mistake, Sheriff; I have never informed the Advertiser as to the doings of gamblers. As to Sheriff Henry I only met him once, when I made application for the position vacated by Rex Hitchcock as deputy sheriff of Molokai."

"WELL YOU'VE QUEERED YOURSELF AND WON'T BE ABLE TO GET ANOTHER JOB IN HONOLULU IF YOU BUCK ME."

"I'm sorry this has happened, Sheriff, and that you think I have spied on you."

"What are you always hanging round the police station for, anyway?"

"Well, Sheriff, you know you promised me a job some time ago and I'm waiting for it."

Devauchelle then left Brown's office and met C. F. Chillingworth near the postoffice, the following conversation ensuing:

"Well, Eugene, I'm sorry you've been acting toward Brown as you have; you've done very wrong."

"What do you mean, Charlie?"

"Why, reporting that Cockett-Nicholls matter to the Advertiser."

"That's a lie."

"Well, you've been seen going into the Advertiser office."

"That may be; Henry Crane is a very old friend of mine and I have some land business with him."

"YOU ARE NOT DOING THE RIGHT THING BY BROWN. IT LOOKS BAD AND YOU'LL HAVE HARD WORK GETTING ANOTHER JOB IN HONOLULU. EVEN LORD & BELSER WON'T GIVE YOU A JOB."

"Who told you I was reporting for the Advertiser?"

"Well, it was an Advertiser man and if you come to my office at 3 o'clock this afternoon I'll tell you who gave the thing away."

Promptly at 3 p. m. Devauchelle was at Chillingworth's office, but was unable to obtain the information he sought. Chillingworth was too busy.

SAM MALOI ACCUSED.

That the police are making desperate efforts to get square with informers against the devious methods of the present police administration is further borne out by a heated attack by special officer Henry Vida upon Sam Maloi, the well known ex-hackman, which took place at the corner of King and Bethel streets about 1 p. m. yesterday.

Maloi was talking with Charlie Clark and Eli Crawford when Henry Vida accosted the trio. He vehemently denounced Maloi for furnishing information to the Advertiser relative to gambling in general and che-fa in particular.

Vida's excited attitude commanded the attention of passers-by and for a time it looked as if fistfights were in order.

Maloi indignantly denied the accusation and defied Vida to prove that he had ever informed the Advertiser of gambling or gamblers.

Vida finally withdrew, with the eyes of a good-sized throng, attracted by his loud talk, upon him.

RAIDS TIPPED OFF.

Said a well-known man about town to an Advertiser reporter yesterday: "Of course it's difficult to make arrests when raids are tipped off in advance. I know of recent instances where raids were planned on games at Moiliili, Waikiki and Palama."

"Certain parties connected with the police department gave the office to the gamblers that something was doing, and in each instance the games were shut down for a few days until danger of police interference was past."

CHARLEY MOORE ARRESTED.

Charley Moore, whose gaming establishment on King street, between Liliha and Beretania street Junction, was recently exposed by the Advertiser, was arrested at 12:45 p. m. yesterday by Officer Dias.

The warrant charged him with running a gambling game at which money or something of value was lost or won.

Niyamoto, a Japanese, swore to the complaint, which read as follows:

"That one Charley Moore, Sam Apollana, Hirano and Nakamori, all of Honolulu, Island of Oahu, Territory of Hawaii, did at said Honolulu, during one month last past, more particularly on the 19th and 27th days of September, A. D. 1905, conduct a certain percentage game, to wit: Craps, played with dice, at which money was lost and won, at those certain premises situated on the mauka side of King street, in said Honolulu, and contrary to Section 3175, Revised Laws of Hawaii."

Judge Whitney issued the warrant. Moore and Apollana were quickly arrested and Hirano was gathered in at 3:15 p. m.

C. F. Chillingworth has been retained.

"I Was Sick—Dizzy—Worn-Out."

North Weymouth, Mass., Dec. 14.—Paine's Celery Compound is the best and most effective medicine I have ever taken. I was sick, dizzy and worn out for a long time and unable to attend to business. My blood was in troublesome condition. I was advised to try Paine's Celery Compound, which I did with pleasing results, and in a short time I was able to return to my business. My blood is greatly benefited. I would advise all who are run down by overwork or who need a blood tonic to take Paine's Celery Compound. They will find that it will be a great benefit to them.

THOUSAND PEOPLE HEAR THE BAND

A thousand people gathered in Emma square last night to listen to the Hawaiian Government band. It was the first concert since the band's return from its triumphal appearance at the Portland Exposition, and it looked like the good old times to see the throng in attendance.

The band showed improvement in many of the old-time selections and the new ones were received with favor. Mrs. N. Alapai, the vocal soloist, was in good voice and she received an ovation as she mounted the platform. And Berger! Well, he was the same old, enthusiastic Berger, and he fairly glowed on the big crowd as he wielded the baton for the first number. That Honolulu has a warm spot in its composite heart for the band was evidenced by the big turn-out. The band plays tonight at Thomas square. Following is the program:

Overture—"Road to Glory".....Kling

GREAT DAY FOR GAMBLING IN A CHINESE GRAVEYARD

Honolulu, October 7, 1905.

Editor Advertiser: Yesterday it was the Chinese decoration day. Early in the morning about four hundred Chinese gathered in the Pauoa cemetery. There were nineteen tables spread on the grounds with mats, dices, cards, etc. All kinds of games were going on, as paikan, 7-11, Russian war and fan-tan. Near by a big sign was hung, written in Chinese and English, as follows: "No gambling allowed, with permission, all right." Shortly after 10 o'clock a special police arrived. The gamblers, first excited for a while, then the games went on at full blast, the officers sitting on one of the benches and watching the game going on. Three hours later Captain Kanae and some officers arrived. Only four men were arrested out of the four or five hundred of people.

Very truly yours,

C. S. L.

[It is proper to say that the above is an anonymous letter. The only corroborative testimony this paper has is that the cemetery is said to have been largely visited by Chinese on that day.—Ed. Adv.]

A KOHALA MAN'S VIEWS ON DIVERSIFIED AGRICULTURE

N. Kohala, September 30, 1905.

A. L. C. Atkinson, Esq., Secretary of the Territory of Hawaii, Honolulu. Sir: I hope you will excuse me for trespassing on your valuable time by imposing on you the reading of this letter. But, as it concerns the immigration, to which, as Mr. de Sousa Canavarro can vouch, I have given a great deal of thought, as well as the land question, I trust that you will not be offended if I give you my opinion on the subject.

I fully believe, as you do, that if Hawaii is ever to become a prosperous American state, a liberal land policy is absolutely necessary. I am convinced that a good heaven of intelligent, energetic independent large land owners is essential. I doubt, however, that large farms, except in Oahu, will be a success, as (1) the market is too restricted, and (2) the freight much too high. Sad experience has taught me this, as I am somewhat of a farmer myself.

But there are other serious questions to be considered: (1) Is there in Hawaii suitable land enough "to give the bulk of the citizens the chance to acquire forty to fifty acres of land, at a reasonable figure," without harming our main sugar industry? I do not believe that a person who owns forty acres of land will raise cane, as long experience has shown that all those who planted cane without owning a mill, saw sooner or later their lands pass into the hands of the mill owners. (2) The larger the homesteads, the smaller the number of homesteaders and the number of workers. (3) Large proprietors will take away hands to work on their lands rather than furnish them to the plantations. I conclude, thus, that large homesteads, as the rule, will not solve the labor question. I would, consequently, advocate Latin immigration, as all interests would be safeguarded.

In fact the Portuguese, Italian and Spanish peasant is not accustomed to, neither does he, like the American farmer, wish for broad acres. No, his "desideratum" the goal of his life, what he will work, yes, slave for, is to own a little plot of ground of about one acre with a cottage on, where he can raise some vegetables, fruit, chickens and pigs, and keep a goat, a cow or a horse, depending for his main support on the wages received for working on a landlord's (here the plantation) fields (of his share in the produce).

Were thus the government to offer to Latin immigrants homesteads of about one acre in the cane belt, and to those who wish for a larger area, lots of five or six acres in the pasture lands; and would at the same time the plantations help them at reasonable terms, to build their houses, fences, etc., I am sure that we would soon have in Hawaii a numerous, happy and prosperous working class, whose children formed in the schools, would, as the Portuguese colony proves, make as good American citizens as those on the mainland.

To reach this end, however, I think that our homestead laws will have to be modified, so as to allow those who have taken their "Intention papers" to acquire lands as well as the citizens, otherwise, ninety-nine out of a hundred immigrants, who are unable to read understandingly the United States Constitution would be prevented from becoming citizens, and consequently proprietors.

Hoping that these lines will be agreeable to you, I remain, Mr. Secretary,

Yours respectfully,
